4. Custodian

The custodian is (name): _____ solely for the purpose of all state and federal statutes which require a designation or determination of custody. Even though one parent is called the custodian, this does not change the parenting rights and responsibilities described in this plan.

Washington law generally refers to parenting time and decision-making, rather than custody. However, some state and federal laws require that one person be named the custodian. The custodian is the person with whom the children are scheduled to reside a majority of their time.

5. Parenting Time Schedule Attachments (Residential Provisions)

Important! You must include at least one of Attachments R, A, or B to this plan. The schedule for where your children will spend time is in the attachments. The court should not sign a parenting plan without at least one of these attachments.

Important! Parenting involves decision-making in many areas. If you believe there are other decisions that are important to your family, list them under "Other" above. Some examples include: extracurricular activities, international travel, cell phones, driver's licenses, tattoos, and haircuts.

b. Reasons for limits on major decision-making, if any:

- There are no reasons to limit major decision-making.
- Major decision-making should be limited because (check all that apply):
 - Both parents are against shared decision-making.
 - One of the parents does not want to share decision-making and this is reasonable because of:
 - the history of each parent's participation in decision-making.
 - the parents' ability and desire to cooperate with each other in decision-making.
 - the distance between the parents' homes makes it hard to make timely decisions together.

7. Dispute Resolution

Important! After this parenting plan is signed by a judge or commissioner, if you and the other parent disagree about shared decisions or what parts of this plan mean, the court may require you to use a dispute resolution provider before going back to court. This section does not apply to disagreements about money or support.

Court (without having to go to mediation, arbitration, or counseling).

- Preference shall be given to carrying out the parenting plan.
- If you reach an agreement, it must be put into writing, signed, and both parents must get a copy.
- If the court finds that you have used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without a good reason, the court can order you to pay financial sanctions (penalties) including the other parent's legal fees.

Other details (if any): _____

9. Moving with the Children (Relocation)

Anyone with majority or substantially equal residential time (at least 45 percent) who wants to move with the children must notify every other person who has court-ordered time with the children.

Move to a different school district

If the move is to a different school district, the relocating person must complete the form Notice of Intent to Move with Children (FL Relocate 701) and deliver it at least 60 days before the intended move.

Exceptions:

- If the relocating person could not reasonably have known enough information to complete the form in time to give 60 days' notice, they must give notice within 5 days after learning the information.
- If the relocating person is relocating to a domestic violence shelter or moving to avoid a clear, immediate, and unreasonable risk to health or safety, notice may be delayed 21 days.
- If information is protected under a court order or the address confidentiality program, it may be withheld from the notice.
- A relocating person who believes that giving notice would put themselves or a child at unreasonable risk of harm, may ask the court for permission to leave things out of the notice or to be allowed to move without giving notice. Use form Motion to Limit Notice of Intent to Move with Children (Ex Parte) (FL Relocate 702).

The Notice of Intent to Move with Children can be delivered by having someone personally serve the other party or by any form of mail that requires a return receipt.

If the relocating person wants to change the Parenting Plan because of the move, they must deliver a proposed Parenting Plan together with the Notice.

Move within the same school district

If the move is within the same school district, the relocating person still has to let the other parent know. However, the notice does not have to be served personally or by mail with a return receipt. Notice to the other party can be made in any reasonable way. No specific form is required.

Warning! If you do not notify...

A relocating person who does not give the required notice may be found in contempt of court. If that happens, the court can impose sanctions. Sanctions can include requiring the relocating person to bring the children back if the move has already happened and ordering the relocating person to pay the other side's costs and lawyer's fees.

Right to object

A person who has court-ordered time with the children can object to a move to a different school district and/or to the relocating person's proposed Parenting Plan. If the move is within the same school district, the other party doesn't have the right to object to the move, but they may ask to change the Parenting Plan if there are adequate reasons under the modification law (RCW 26.09.260).

An objection is made by filing the Objection about Moving with Children and Petition about Changing a Parenting/Custody Order (Relocation) (form FL Relocate 721). File your Objection with the court and serve a copy on the relocating person and anyone else who has court-ordered time with the children. Service of the Objection must be by personal service or by mailing a copy to each person by any form of mail that requires a return receipt. The Objection must be filed and served no later than 30 days after the Notice of Intent to Move with Children was received.

Right to move

During the 30 days after the Notice was served, the relocating person may not move to a different school district with the children unless they have a court order allowing the move.

After the 30 days, if no Objection is filed, the relocating person may move with the children without getting a court order allowing the move.

After the 30 days, if an Objection has been filed, the relocating person may move with the children pending the final hearing on the Objection unless:

- The other party gets a court order saying the children cannot move, or
- The other party has scheduled a hearing to take place no more than 15 days after the date the Objection was served on the relocating person. (However, the relocating person may ask the court for an order allowing the move even though a hearing is pending if the relocating person believes that they or a child are at unreasonable risk of harm.)

The court may make a different decision about the move at a final hearing on the Objection.

Parenting Plan after move

If the relocating person served a proposed Parenting Plan with the Notice, and if no Objection is filed within 30 days after the Notice was served (or if the parties agree):

- Both parties may follow that proposed plan without being held in contempt of the Parenting Plan that was in place before the move. However, the proposed plan cannot be enforced by contempt unless it has been approved by a court.
- Either party may ask the court to approve the proposed plan. Use form Ex Parte Motion for Final Order Changing Parenting Plan – No Objection to Moving with Children (FL Relocate 706).

Attachment A: Limitations

Only complete this attachment if your Parenting Plan involves limitations on a parent under RCW 26.09.191 or .192. If not, remove this attachment.

a. Abandonment by a parent, or child abuse, domestic violence, assault, sex offense, or sexual abuse of a child by a parent or a person living with a parent.

If a parent has any of these problems, the court must limit that parent's contact with the children and that parent's right to make decisions for the children, and may not require dispute resolution other than court unless the court makes the required findings in 3. See definitions at the end of this attachment.

Neither parent has any of these problems.

A parent has one or more of these problems as follows (check all that apply):

Abandonment – (Parent's name): _____
intentionally abandoned a child in this case for an extended time.

Child Abuse – (Parent's name): _____

Sex offense or sexual abuse of a child by a parent or a person living with a parent. (Also complete Attachment B.)

b. Other problems that may harm the children's best interests or interfere with the performance of parenting functions. These problems could include neglect, emotional or physical problems, substance abuse, lack of emotional ties, abusive use of conflict, withholding the child, or other problems.

If a parent has any of these problems, the court may limit that parent's contact with the children and that parent's right to make decisions for the children.

Neither parent has any of these problems.

A parent has one or more of these problems as follows (check all that apply):

Neglect – (Parent's name): _____

- Withholding the child – (Parent’s name): _____

Withholding does not include protective actions taken by a parent in good faith for the legitimate and lawful purpose of protecting themselves or the parent’s child from the risk of harm posed by the other parent.
- Other (specify): _____

2. If limitations apply to both parents

When limitations apply to both parents, the court must compare the risks and may make an exception in applying mandatory limitations based on 1.a. When reasons for mandatory limitations in 1.a. apply to one parent and discretionary limitations in 1.b. apply to another parent, the court must prioritize the mandatory limitations when limiting the residential schedule, decision making, and dispute resolution. If the court does not prioritize the mandatory limitations, the court must make detailed written findings why not. RCW 26.09.191(7).

- Does not apply.
- There are reasons for putting limitations on both parents. The court makes the following findings about the comparative risk of harm to the children posed by each parent, including any decision not to impose limitations or not to prioritize mandatory limitations (detailed written findings required):

3. Limitations on a parent

Limitations shall be reasonably calculated to protect the children and the other parent from the physical, sexual, or emotional abuse or harm that could result from contact with the limited parent.

- The following limits or conditions apply to (parent’s name): _____
_____ (check all that apply):
- Use Attachment B if the court found sex offense or sexual abuse of a child (skip to 4.).

No contact with the children. Limitations on the residential time with the children will not adequately protect the children from the harm or abuse that could result from contact.

Limited contact as shown in the Parenting Time Schedule (Attachment R).

Limited contact as follows (specify schedule, list all contact here instead of in the Residential Schedule): _____

Supervised contact. All parenting time shall be supervised. Any costs of supervision must be paid by (name): _____

The parent cannot use professional supervision because (check all that apply):

Geographic isolation or other factors make professionally supervised visitation inaccessible.

They cannot pay for professional supervision. The parent has a GR 34 fee waiver or shown other evidence of financial indigency.

The non-professional supervisor/s shall be (name/s): _____

Dates and times of supervised contact (check one):

As shown in the Parenting Time Schedule (Attachment R).

As arranged by the supervisor for up to ___ hour/s per visit, up to ___ visits per (frequency): _____

As follows (specify): _____

Location – The supervised contact will occur (check all that apply):

in public location/s (specify): _____

Specific rules for supervised contact:

[] Follow the rules in Attachment C.

[] Other: _____

Important! No visits shall take place until the supervised parent and supervisor (or professional supervision program representative) have signed the Supervised Visitation Acknowledgment, FL All Family 141, confirming that they have read the court orders and the rules for supervised visitation and agree to follow them.

[] Other limitations or conditions during parenting time (specify): _____

[] No limitations despite reasons

There is clear and convincing evidence for no limitations on a parent even though there are reasons for limitations checked in 1.a. above, considering the following factors:

▪ Any current risk posed by the parent to the physical or psychological well-being of the child or other parent;
(Express findings): _____

▪ Whether a parent has demonstrated that they can and will prioritize the child’s physical and psychological well-being;
(Express findings): _____

▪ Whether a parent has followed and is likely to follow court orders;
(Express findings): _____

▪ Whether a parent has genuinely acknowledged past harm and is committed to avoiding harm in the future; and
(Express findings): _____

▪ A parent’s compliance with previously court-ordered treatment. A parent’s compliance with the requirements for participation in a treatment program does not, by itself, constitute evidence that the parent has made the requisite changes.
(Express findings): _____

(Other findings, if any): _____

4. Evaluation or treatment

Not required.

as follows (specify kind of treatment and any other details): _____

provide a copy of the evaluation and compliance reports (specify details): _____

If this parent does not follow the evaluation or treatment requirements above, then (what happens): _____

5. Decision-making

When the children are with you, you are responsible for them. You can make day-to-day decisions for the children when they are with you, including decisions about safety and emergency healthcare. Major decisions must be made as follows:

a. Who can make major decisions about the children?

Type of Major Decision	Joint (parents make these decisions together)	Limited (only the parent named below has authority to make these decisions)
School/Educational	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/> (Name):
Healthcare (not emergency)	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/> (Name):
Other:	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/> (Name):
Other:	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/> (Name):
Other:	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/> (Name):

Important! Parenting involves decision-making in many areas. If you believe there are other decisions that are important to your family, list them under "Other" above. Some examples include: extracurricular activities, international travel, cell phones, driver's licenses, tattoos, and haircuts.

b. Reasons to limit major decision-making, if any

No limits (check one):

- Neither parent has any of the problems described in 1.a. above, and the court finds no reason to limit major decision-making.
- Even though a parent has problems as described in 1.a. above, the court made detailed findings of clear and convincing evidence not to impose limitations in 3 above.
- Limits (check all that apply):
 - Major decision-making must be limited because of the problems in 1.a. above.
 - Major decision-making should be limited because (check all that apply):
 - Both parents are against shared decision-making.
 - One of the parents does not want to share decision-making and this is reasonable because of:
 - problems as described in 1.b. above.
 - the history of each parent's participation in decision-making.
 - the parents' ability and desire to cooperate with each other in decision-making.
 - the distance between the parents' homes makes it hard to make timely decisions together.
 - There are reasons to limit both parents' decision-making. The court made detailed findings about the comparative risk in 2 above.

6. Dispute Resolution

Important! After this parenting plan is signed by a judge or commissioner, if you and the other parent disagree about shared decisions or what parts of this plan mean, the court may require you to use a dispute resolution provider before going back to court. If there are limitations in 1.a., the court may only require dispute resolution other than court if the court makes the required findings in 3. If a dispute resolution provider is checked below, the parents may, and sometimes must, use this provider before filing a Petition to Change a Parenting Plan or a Motion for Contempt for not following the plan. Check your county's Local Court Rules.

a. The parents will go to (check one):

- The dispute resolution provider below (before they may go to court):
 - Mediation (mediator or agency name): _____
 - Arbitration (arbitrator or agency name): _____

If there is a domestic violence finding in 1.a. above, arbitration may proceed without an additional Order Allowing or Terminating Arbitration-At Risk Party, form FL All Family 193, as long as reasonable procedures are in place to protect the party from risk of harm, harassment, or intimidation. RCW 26.14.110.

- Counseling (counselor or agency name): _____

If a dispute resolution provider is not named above or if the named provider is no longer available, the parents may agree on a provider or ask the court to name one.

Important! Unless there is an emergency, the parents must participate in the dispute resolution process listed above in good faith, before going to court for disagreements about joint decisions or what parts of this plan mean. This section does not apply to disagreements about money or support.

Court (without having to go to mediation, arbitration, or counseling).
(If you check this box, don't fill out 6.b.)

b. If mediation, arbitration, or counseling is required, one parent must notify the other parent by (check one): certified mail other (specify): _____.

The parents will pay for the mediation, arbitration, or counseling services as follows (check one):

(Name): _____ will pay _____%,
(Name): _____ will pay _____%.

based on each parents' Proportional Share of Income (percentage) from line 6 of the Child Support Worksheet.

as decided through the dispute resolution process.

What to expect in the dispute resolution process:

- Preference shall be given to carrying out the parenting plan.
- If you reach an agreement, it must be put into writing, signed, and both parents must get a copy.
- If the court finds that you have used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without a good reason, the court can order you to pay financial sanctions (penalties) including the other parent's legal fees.
- You may go back to court if the dispute resolution process doesn't solve the disagreement or if you disagree with the arbitrator's decision.
